

at home

with CENTURY 21®

OUR ANNUAL TRENDS ISSUE

THE TOP

50

PEOPLE, PRODUCTS & IDEAS that will INSPIRE us in 2010

THINK OF THIS AS YOUR APP FOR TRENDS—a user-friendly connection to the best styles and stuff you'll see in 2010. Sure there'll be some surprises as the year plays out. But our style gurus know what to look for (it's why we asked them!). They've told us what's ahead in all things home—from how we'll dress the table when hungry friends show up to why we'll feel better about crafting a pillow than buying one.

Ready for your upload? ENTER HERE. >>

1 The SLOW DESIGN MOVEMENT has been picking up momentum since 2005, when journalist Carl Honoré (left) published In Praise of Slow: Challenging the Cult of Speed (Orion). Now slow home champions like John Brown (theslowhome.com) are getting the message of thoughtful design to the masses. Translation: This might be your year to order kitchen cabinetry from a local woodworker, install hardware by a metalsmith friend of a friend—and to let the rest of the space evolve over time.

THE TOP

10
PEOPLE, PRODUCTS
& IDEAS that will INSPIRE
US IN 2010

WRITTEN BY Sarah Egge • STYLE GURUS: Decor8blog.com blogger Holly Becker • Designsonline.com blogger Grace Bonney • home design editor Oma Blaise Ford • New York interior designer Elaine Griffin • Craftster.org founder Leah Kramer • DesignforMankind.com blogger Erin Loechner • Los Angeles interior designer Christopher Lowell • Traditional Home editor in chief Ann Maine • lifestyle expert Matthew Mead • trend and futures firm, The Futures Company, Yankelovich MONITOR • Houston interior decorator Joetta Moulden • home design editor Jill Waage • ReadyMade editor in chief Andrew Wagner • lighting designer Randall Whitehead